ONEY. We are authorized to annouce H. E. Oney, of Hazel Green, as Democratic primary.

THE outlook for Democratic success this year is very gratifying, and if the party will take the advice given by Col. John R. Allen, of Lexington, there can be no question as to the success of the ticket. Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky. William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, will undoubtedly be the national standard bearer, and if you for THE HERALD and Courierhim, the policy he advocates and copy of each. Have them sent to the platform adopted at Denver, Forest. Yours respectfully, Democracy will triumph. But, as stated in the beginning of this article, all members of the party must lay down their preferences, prejudices, etc., and determine to win. They must recognize the fact that the party is greater than the individual, which is the sum and substance of Col. Allen's advice. If they do this and leap from the lethargy that has in late years handicapped the rank and file, victory is assured. In this connection, why not make John R. Allen, of Lexington, Mr. Bryan's running mate? He has all the qualifications requisite to the position. He has the courage of his convictions, and if nominated TRY THIS FOR DESSERT.

OLLIE JAMES has been favorably mentioned as a running mate for Mr. Bryan on the national ticket, and his friends will possibly push his claims at the Denver convention. But in our humble opinion Col. John R. Allen, of Lexington, would be a more appropriate associate. While he has never been in congress, he has been in the i limelight of politics in this state longer than Mr. James, and his recent utterances at the state con- 1 vention so struck the people of the nation that he would be a strong man for second place. Bryan and Allen should be the
